NAPA VALLEY COLLEGE PRESIDENT— TRANSITIONAL LEADER

Armond Phillips, former Foundation Board member and interim VP of Instruction, accepted the Napa Valley College Board of Trustees request to serve as interim president after the unexpected death of Dr. Chris McCarthy in the fall of 2009.

Phillips gently steadied the campus community, lifting spirits and focusing on the future. He dug into the everyday work of running a college like the seasoned pro and astute administrator that he had always been.

He evoked trust and respect, with his rakish sense of humor, unflinching optimism, and abundant laughter, which was needed in this transitional year.

Phillips worked tirelessly, tackling the most difficult organizational issues and making decisions that would protect the mission of the college, and to the greatest extent possible, the college staff, programs, and services. He was calm and even-handed, always in command of the facts while being sensitive to nuance and the big picture.

In this budget strapped year, he delivered difficult messages with a warmth and sincerity that convinced us that the decisions that we reached together were the best and fairest ones possible.

He set the stage for the success for our new NVC president, Dr. Edna Baehre. Originally from the tiny German village of Dreisen, Dr. Baehre was most recently the president at Harrisburg Area Community College in Pennsylvania.

Napa Valley College was fortunate to be the beneficiary of the gifts skills and talent of Armond Phillips that came with a lifetime of experience, wisdom and sound intuition to share. He healed a wounded campus, raised hopes, and reminded us how truly fortunate we are to be a part of Napa Valley College.

Sincerely,

Sonia R. Wright

FOUNDATION PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

This past year has been a year of many celebrations for the Foundation and the College as we embarked upon several new chapters in the history of Napa Valley College. . .

- In January, the college community celebrated the grand opening of our North Gym which will serve all students, but in particular our special needs students in adaptive physical education programs, and our Criminal Justice Training Center cadets.
- In early May, we co-hosted A Celebration of Food and Wine to pay a heart-felt tribute to Belle and Barney Rhodes for their $1 million bequest to our Culinary Program. As part of the tribute, the Foundation presented the Spirit of Napa Valley College Award to the Rhodes, posthumous.

- During the same month, we celebrated the successes of nearly 200 students with their family and friends, and awarded over $170,000 in scholarships.
- In June, the dedication of the McCarthy Library took place. We commemorated the leadership, passion and vision of our dear friend, Dr. Chris McCarthy as we celebrated the opening of this magnificent state-of-the-art facility that will serve our entire community.
- In early summer, we joined the coaches and staff in the Athletic Department at the Annual Storm Golf Tournament and raised much needed funds for our athletic programs.
- And finally, in August our entire community came together to welcome our new Superintendent and College President, Dr. Edna Baehre, and to dedicate the opening of the spectacular and long awaited Performing Arts Center.

During each one of these occasions I was humbly reminded of the incredible commitment and generous support of our many wonderful friends in this community. Simply put, none of these celebrations would have occurred without you, our friends and donors. It is your generosity that enables this college to offer our students first class programs, in first class facilities. But our work together has just begun. It is clear that with the on-going cuts in the state budget the need for strong public-private partnerships is more critical than ever. With your continued support, I am confident that we can meet the challenges ahead and continue to make the academic dreams of thousands of individuals in our community a reality.

On behalf of the Napa Valley College Foundation, thank you for everything you have done and continue to do for our students, and in turn, for our community.

With much appreciation,

Kathleen H. Lucier
President, Napa Valley College Foundation

STORM GOLF CLASSIC

About 75 golfers participated in the 5th Annual Storm Golf Classic at Silverado Resort and Country Club on June 9. The funds we raised, nearly $8,000, play a vital role in maintaining a quality athletic program. The tournament has become a true showcase for the spirit of our community. Our student athletes are on the course, at the check-in table, and helping with the auction. Next year's tournament will be in the Fall of 2011. Join us to celebrate the success of our talented students and teams. In signing-up to join our tournament, you are also joining our team to continue to provide a vibrant athletic program to our local college athletes.

SPIRIT OF NAPA VALLEY COLLEGE

As Michael Chiarello so aptly put it, "If America had royalty, Barney and Belle would be the Duke and Duchess of Napa Valley." The Rhodes were admired on so many fronts and it was only natural to honor their memory with a celebration of food and wine.

In early May, the NVC Foundation partnered with The Culinary Institute of America and other recipients of the Rhodes philanthropy to provide a tribute to Belle and Barney. Just ask any chef or vintner, and they'll tell you the same thing: The Napa Valley wouldn't be what it is today without Belle and Barney Rhodes. Their encouragement and promotion of the culinary arts left an everlasting mark.

"If it were not for Belle and Barney, our culinary school would never have succeeded," said Bonnie Thoreen, then dean of Napa Valley College's Upper Valley Campus. "They were both generous with their monetary gifts and their spiritual guidance."

"Every time you open a cupboard, every time you pick up a knife, a cutting board, a pot or a pan, Belle's spirit is there," added Barbara Alexander, Napa Valley College Cooking School executive chef. "She is the essence of this kitchen."

The Belle and Barney Rhodes Trust provided over $1 million to Napa Valley College for the Napa Valley College Cooking School. Additionally, the Rhodes made significant contributions to The Culinary Institute of America, the Napa Valley Chamber Music Series, the Napa Valley Symphony, and to the Department of Viticulture and Enology at the University of California at Davis.

During the evening, participants were able to sample some of the best wines in the valley and enjoy the labors of the valley's best chefs as they roamed the CIA teaching kitchen.

The highlight of the evening was the posthumous presentation of the College's first Spirit of Napa Valley College award to Belle and Barney Rhodes and the designation of a new CIA scholarship program in their honor. College Foundation President Kathleen Lucier lead a tribute to the Rhodeses, including the presentation of the award to Valerie Gargiulo of Gargiulo Vineyards, who accepted on behalf of her aunt and uncle.

LEGACY SOCIETY

The Legacy Society is made up of individuals who have supported Napa Valley College with a planned gift through life insurance, IRA, or bank account beneficiaries, trusts, charitable gift annuities, real estate donations, bequests by wills and other instruments.

By joining the Legacy Society you create a legacy to live beyond your lifetime. Your gift will indeed make a difference...to the college, our programs and services, and most of all to our students.

Here are easy ways to become a Legacy Society member.

1. Change your bank account and/or securities to distribute the remainder to the Foundation upon your death.
2. Designate the Foundation as the beneficiary of your IRA/401k and/or life insurance policy.

And finally, don't forget to contact the NVC Foundation, 707-253-3378, and notify them of the action you have taken and you'll be added to the NVC Legacy Society Membership.

DONORS BENEFIT FROM ESTATE PLANNING PROVIDED BY NVCF

The Foundation continues to offer the services of estate planning consultants Thompson & Associates. Representative Bob Hoffman is available for confidential meetings, with no expectation of a financial commitment to Napa Valley College Foundation. Here's what Thompson & Associates can do for you:

- Clarify your estate goals and develop an action plan.
- Compare your existing estate plan.
- Outline how you can potentially transfer more wealth to your heirs.

If you have questions or would like to schedule a free, confidential meeting with Bob Hoffman, please call Sonia Wright at the Foundation, 707-253-3378. You can be assured that no financial products will be marketed and that there is no obligation involved.
